B. Detention Center Report and Update

Director Al Casamento updated the Commissioners on changes that have been made since March 2012. The Detention Center has updated their Operations and Training Curriculum. The main focus was related to suicide prevention but they have also addressed issues listed on their quality assurance review.

Commissioner Lucero agreed with the decision to hire a consultant to assist.

Vice Chair Scherzinger asked Director Casamento to clarify his use of the word "supplant". He clarified that he meant to use the term "supplement". She also asked if the inmates were made aware of the Suicide Step Down process. He said that the inmate is made aware at that point by the Mental Health Staff.

Manager Rios stated that having a Mental Health Staff was a requirement of the contract with the Federal Government to house Federal inmates. Commissioner Walters requested a written report with the information that he brought to the Commission verbally. Commissioner Chapman agreed that having the report in written format would have been appropriate. Chair Madalena thanked Director Casamento and said that the Commissioners will support him and his staff.

Director Casamento recognized his staff and said they are dedicated in completing the steps necessary to get the Federal inmates back. Commissioner Lucero asked for an update on the situation with Bernalillo County. Attorney Patrick Trujillo stated that approval of funding for housing prisoners in other jurisdictions came before the Bernalillo County Commissioners during their last meeting. Motion failed at that time. Motion will be before them again during their next Commission meeting. He will update the Commissioners after that meeting takes place.

9. COMMENTS FROM THE PUBLIC

Dave Baldwin a Rio Rancho resident, spoke on budget concerns. He asked the Commissioners to consider the Rio Rancho Police Department needs during this time.

10. COMMENTS FROM THE COMMISSIONERS

Commissioner Walters asked for an update from Manager Rios on the Summer Youth Employment Program. He requested letters to go out to the participants. He also requested congratulatory letters to go out to Tom Church who was named Cabinet Secretary for Transportation and the new Fab Manager at Intel.
