10. COMMENTS FROM THE COMMISSIONERS

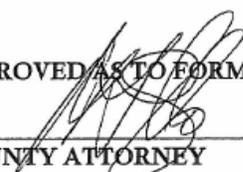

Commissioner Scherzinger thanked everyone for their support during this difficult time. Commissioner Walters mentioned the Rio Rancho Regional Chamber of Commerce is hosting "I Love Rio Rancho Day" at the Roundhouse on February 27th. Also the last day to introduce legislation is February 19th, which is the same day as the next Commission meeting, he asked that lobbyist Larry Horan provide an update during that meeting. Commissioner Chapman mentioned again the three initiatives that he feels the Commission should take on in 2015; partnership with the City of Rio Rancho, transparency, and fiscal planning. He asked that these items be placed on the agenda for discussion during the next Commission meeting. Commissioner Walters stated he is in support of these three initiatives, but if there are already meetings and workshops scheduled then the discussions can take place at that time. Commissioner Scherzinger agreed and would like to make sure that partnerships with all the communities are established. Vice Chairman Dominguez would also like to form partnerships with all the communities in Sandoval County.

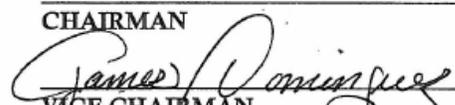

11. ADJOURN

Commissioner Walters motion to adjourn at 7:18 p.m., second by Commissioner Scherzinger. Motion passed. Vote was unanimous.
